Our roots run deep.

Chartered on April 25, 1912, the Marin Municipal Water District is the central and southern Marin had been provided by several small, private developers. Recognizing the critical importance of reliable water service and managed water system. Our proud history is what drives our work.

Today, we serve more than 191,000 people in central and southern Marin drinking water. About 75 percent of our water supply comes from our remaining supply coming from neighboring Sonoma County's Russian River.
